

City of Edinburgh Women 1 had the perfect start to the league campaign with a 3-0 win over Edinburgh rivals Jets. Both sides were under strength missing key players, but City made the most of the opportunity with strong serving and stable passing throughout. Good blocking was a key feature of the first set which was closed out 25-18.

In set 2 City had a strong start which they maintained with some excellent serving. Set 3 was a roller coaster with City finding themselves down at the first technical timeout 8-6 due to strong serving pressure from Jets. It was close for a long time but City finally pulled away with very strong hitting by captain Jen Thom, closing out the match 25-18, 25-15, 25-21.

City of Edinburgh Men's 1 got the start to the league season they were hoping for with a 3-1 win over Edinburgh rivals Jets.

The first set was close throughout mainly due to the City boy's unforced errors but they managed to finish the set strong and win 25-21.

In the second set City's quality really shone through with setter Graeme Spowart going on a 6 point serving run to begin set. At no point did this level drop and they won the set comfortably 25-13.

In the third set the Jets outside hitters really showed their quality with a great hitting display and the main reason they took the third set 20-25.

But in the fourth, City upped their level with some strong passing and blocking and they managed to take the set 25-14.
