

SCOTTISH VOLLEYBALL ASSOCIATION

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

Please read these terms and conditions carefully. By applying for Membership of the Scottish Volleyball Association, you signify your agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions. By applying for Membership on behalf of another person, you signify that the other person has empowered you to agree to the terms and conditions of membership on their behalf. No Member is able to deny their acceptance of the terms and conditions when another person has agreed to the terms and conditions on their behalf.

1. Membership

In order to be registered as a player, official or coach in an SVA approved competition, to hold an administrative position within a member club or to play in a representative team, including national teams, it is necessary to become a member of the Association.

By signing up to Membership, the Member agrees to be bound by the rules of the SVA, and in particular the Articles of Association and byelaws, as well as the policies, rules and conditions which may be imposed by the SVA from time to time, including the payment of fees.

2. Termination of Membership

The SVA reserves the right to reject an application for membership of the SVA and the right to terminate an application for membership at any time and for any reason.

3. Data Protection

All information held by the SVA will be held in accordance with the GDPR 2018 and, as far as possible, with the SVA's Data Protection Policy. This policy is available on request from the SVA office.

4. Membership Code of Conduct

All Members must display a consistently high standard of behaviour at all times, considering the following guidance where appropriate. Members shall:

- Consider the wellbeing and safety of participants above all else
- Never promote anti-social behaviour, lewd acts or excessive drinking, or force any member into taking part in such activities.
- Make sure all activities are appropriate to the age, ability and experience of those taking part
- Hold appropriate valid qualifications or be working towards such qualifications
- Never condone rule violations, rough play, nor commit a doping offence in violation of the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) Code, nor encourage such an offence
- Shall not do anything which is likely to intimidate, offend, insult, humiliate or discriminate against any other person on the ground of gender, race, disability, age, religious or political belief, sexual orientation, social background, ethnic origin, language, marital or civil partnership status

- Must ensure that the game is played and conducted in accordance with disciplined and sporting behaviour, including principles of fair play
- Uphold the laws of the game
- Accept and observe the authority and decisions of match officials and all other disciplinary bodies
- Promote the reputation of the game and take all possible steps to prevent it from being brought into disrepute
- Refrain from using foul or abusive language or gestures towards match officials or spectators

Violation of the above Code may result in immediate termination of membership.

5. Photography

All photography or other media produced at SVA events or competitions remain the property of the SVA. By becoming a Member of the SVA, you acknowledge that any media involving images of you may from time to time be used by the SVA for promotional or other such purposes as directed by the Board.

Media containing images of children under the age of 18 years old will not be used without parental permission.

Media produced at SVA events by parents, coaches and others may be used for personal purposes, but may not be distributed for commercial purposes without the express written permission of the SVA.

6. Child Protection Policy

All Members are required to follow the SVA's Child Protection Policy at all times when working with children. Any violation of this policy may result in immediate termination of membership and report of the violation to the police as appropriate. Copies of this policy can be obtained on request from the SVA office or on the SVA website.

7. Articles of Association and Byelaws

All Members are required to adhere to the SVA's Articles of Association and Byelaws. In the event that these terms and conditions contradict the SVA's Articles of Association and Byelaws, then the terms of the Articles of Association and Byelaws shall prevail.
